

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE
August 1, 2006

Press Contact:
heather@bluecatscreenplay.com

2006 BLUECAT SCREENPLAY COMPETITION WINNER ANNOUNCED

LOS ANGELES, CA - Young Kim has been named the winner of the 2006 BlueCat Screenplay Competition. His screenplay, HYUNG'S OVERTURE, was selected from nearly 1800 submissions and will be awarded $10,000 in cash.

Kim's screenplay tells the story of the oldest son of a Korean immigrant family who leaves Harvard to manage a Bronx convenience store in order for his younger brother to fulfill his destiny as a world-class violinist.

BlueCat founder Gordy Hoffman is the brother of Philip Seymour Hoffman and writer of LOVE LIZA, winner of the 2002 Waldo Screenwriting Award at Sundance.

Now going into its ninth year, BlueCat has the largest cash prize for a contest offering written coverage to every entrant. In addition, BlueCat produces staged readings of finalists' screenplays annually at the High Falls Film Festival in New York.

For loglines and script requests of the top 16 screenplays, please contact heather@bluecatscreenplay.com.

###

For the editors:

2005 BlueCat Winner, GARY THE TENNIS COACH, begins filming Oct 23 starring Seann William Scott and directed by Danny Leiner. Scott is co-producing with GreeneStreet Films. Writers Andy Stock and Rick Stempson are repped by UTA.

BlueCat Screenplay Competition
www.bluecatscreenplay.com